Experience the Joy You life can now be filled with joy and peace. You are a God's own. He loves you with an incredible love and will never leave you for any reason. All of His promises are now given to you and He is always there for you. Your live can have the fulfillment that only comes when you have a relationship with your Heavenly Father.

Feel the Power! The moment you accepted Christ as your Savior a remarkable thing occurred. God sent His Holy presence to live inside of you. This is God's spirit and it now dwells inside of you always. You are sealed as God's own. Nothing that you do or what life brings will cause His Holy presence to leave you. You know have the POWER of the Spirit of God living in you. With Faith, you can accomplish great things.

Discover a New Life! Your life has now totally changed and you will never be the same. You may not feel it at this moment, but all of the old things of your life have passed away and you are now a new creation in Christ. God has perfected you in His eyes by giving you the righteousness of Christ. Your life is hid in Christ and a great future is yours in heaven. Best of all nothing can change your new standing with God. Now, you have a chance to grow and reach an awesome potential as you start your new life. Yes there will be times in life when you may not remember who you are but that will never change the fact that you have been purchased by the blood of the Lamb and that you are not your own, you were purchased of God through faith in the death and resurrection of His Son, Jesus Christ the Lord.

Why Do Churches Reject or Diminish the Apostle Paul's Doctrine of Grace

One of the biggest mysteries to me is the fact that so many churches are quick to dismiss the doctrine of grace, justification by faith, that was expounded in Paul's writings to the early Christians.

Martin Luther, the Roman Catholic priest who tried to reform the Catholic church by proclaiming "THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY FAITH" was eventually excommunicated from the church for teaching Paul's gospel. Then, in the 1500's, the Council of Trent ended any hope of the doctrine of Justification by Faith being accepted in the Catholic church when they ruled against it being taught as the way to salvation. That also ended any re-unification efforts between Protestants and Catholics.

The problem however is not due to modern times or great revelations, it was present at the time Paul began to preach the Gospel.

Just as a reminder, Paul whose name was Saul, was a chief persecutor of Christians. He had been involved in the stoning of Stephen, and was on his way to Jerusalem to gather more Christians to take back for trail and execution. On the road to Damascus, Saul was converted when Jesus spoke to him. (Acts 9:1-19). Later, he would change his name to Paul to ease the Christian's fear of him.

The conversion of Paul was one of the most important events in the New Testament. Paul's letters comprise the majority of New Testament writings and his writings reveal the Doctrine of Grace and the dispensation of the Church.

The book of Acts reveals that Peter made the case for Christian liberty for the Gentiles early in his ministry as well before being swayed back by James.

However, Paul and the Apostle Peter, along with James (who wrote the book of James) and the elders, were not in one accord over the doctrine of grace. Acts 15 describes the encounter and the argument for Christian liberty. Finally, James and Peter agree that the Gentiles will be under grace and that they should abstain from practices that would offend their Jewish brothers, such as eating meats offered to idols. (see also Acts 21:25).

Anyone who has ever read and study the books of Romans, Ephesians, and Galatians should have a clear understanding that Paul definitely believed in grace. He constantly places the believers in Christ in the liberty that justification by faith brings. Paul saw that the Law of Moses had no impact on followers of Christ because their lives were hid in Christ. Salvation is the result of the sacrificed Blood of the Lamb and has nothing to do with keeping commandments or following traditions. The Galatians had started their faith under the doctrine of Grace but had polluted it with the law and traditions so much that Paul declared they had fallen from Grace (meaning they had left the doctrine of Grace for the doctrine of bondage). So, why is the doctrine of Grace such a problem?

One of the main reasons for the problem is that Churches did not want to teach new Jewish Christians that they were no longer under the law of Moses but were under Grace. They believed that they would lose control of their members. After all, without the man made rules, the law, and the traditions of the church, what stronghold would they have on believers. What they failed to realize is that when one is born into God's family through Christ, they are a new creation. It is God that creates the good works in them after their rebirth (Ephesians 2:10).

In conclusion, you owe it to yourself to read and study the books of Romans, Ephesians, and Galatians for yourself.

A New Member's Testimony - My Story of faith, rebellion, miracles, betrayal, answered prayers and God's never ending love! by Leah D.

I have found through my life's experiences that God really does care about each one of us and He never leaves us. Please read my entire testimony of healing and grace on-line at:

http://tgcm.org/Leahs\_story.html

Thank you! Below is a brief exert:

I was saved and baptized at 9 years old, and attended church every time the door was opened, due to my troubled abusive childhood. After high school I drifted from church to church, and then turned my back on God, and stopped going to church altogether. I even was engaged to an atheist. My daughter was born with problems and I was betrayed by my second husband.

But God intervened through it all. First, my engagement to the atheist was broken. God healed my daughter.

God saw me through the hurt and pain of my husband horrible betrayal. He delivered me completely and now I am so happy with God back in my life.

Then, there was the painting. It helped to change my complete outlook.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God and in the mountain of His Holiness Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth

Psalm 48:1-2

It was January 2006, that I decided to go back to church for the first time in decades, and then my life turned around. I am now a member of a local Church here in Texas.

A song to Remember - Under the Blood

The song, Under the Blood, words and music by Martin J. Nystrom and Ronda Gunter Scelsi, is by far one of the most powerful Christian songs ever written. I have often thought that it could very well be considered as the Christian National Anthem. Here are the words:

O the blood of the Passover Lamb is applied to the door of my life
No power of darkness could ever withstand the force of the blood sacrifice

Though Satan will bring accusations
I let him know right where I stand
For now there is no condemnation
I'm under the blood of the lamb

I'm under the blood of the lamb
That covers the guilt of my past
By the mercy of God
Holy and righteous I stand

I'm under the blood of the lamb
I'm safe and secure from the enemy's plan
No weapons formed against me will stand

I'm under the blood of the lamb!

Questions of the Quarter from our Members:

Robert S. in Arkansas asks: Why doesn't TGCM.org have paid positions

Thank you for the question Robert. TGCM does not have paid positions for anyone. Everyone who works for TGCM is a volunteer. There are several reasons. First, the Bible says "Freely you have received, freely give. Go in my name and because you believe others will know that I am". TGCM never burdens anyone with direct requests for donations. Any donations received are used 100% for God's work - not to pay salaries or high cost rent on large buildings.

We believe that there should not be any expectation for donations placed on any visitor or member. Our website is designed to win the lost to Christ and provide answers and strength to our fellow Christians. We do not want anything to diminish this goal.

The founders and board of directors along with tuition from the Bible College pays all of the expenses for the website, advertising, and materials.

All donations belong to God. How an organization spends that money will someday be accountable to God.

I hope this answers your question.

Susan B. in Kansas asks: Can a Christian lose their salvation by not going to church or by not following the rules of a particular church?

Thanks Susan for this important question. The answer is NO! Salvation is a FREE gift. It is not earned. It is given to those who believe on the Name of the Son of God. Salvation is by faith. It is not by works of righteousness that one does. If you had to go to church, follow man made rules, or keep the commandments, then salvation would not be by grace but by merit. Paul says in Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace are you saved through faith, that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God, not of works lest any man should boast."

From the Bible, the Story of Jonah

The servant Jonah, hated the people of Nineveh. God wants him to go to warn them of His coming wrath. Jonah knows God is merciful and says to God you are going to spare them, so spare them without me having to go to Nineveh.

And so, here's the story ...

Chapter 1:

1.Now the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying ,

2.Arise , go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

3.But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish.

4.But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken .

11.Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought , and was tempestuous .

12.And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea;

17.Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Chapter 3:

1.And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying ,

2.Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3. So Jonah arose , and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days journey.

4.And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried , and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown .

5.So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

10.And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

Chapter 4:

1.But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry .

2.And he prayed unto the LORD, and said , I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

11.(God answers) And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; ...
